

Bible Study – Romans chapter 14

Give an overview of Romans 14

- 1) Who are we to accept? (v.1)
How are we to accept them?
- 2) What illustration does Paul give of strong and weak faith? (v.2)
- 3) What attitudes and actions should believers have towards each other? (v.3)
What is the reason for these actions?
- 4) Who is the master of Christians? (v.4)
What are we told not to do? Why?
What does the Lord do for the brother or sister in Christ who we differ with?
- 5) What does some people regard more sacred than another, and others regard all the same? (v.5)
What should they be convinced about? Why?
Read Colossians 2: 16 – 17
- 6) Believers have their differences, but in their differences for whom do they do what they do? (v.6)
- 7) Who do believers live for and die for? (vs. 7 – 8)
- 8) Why did Christ die and rise from the dead to life again? (v.9)
- 9) What do we learn about judging one another, and God's judgment? (vs. 10 – 12)
- 10) What are two things we should not do to other believers? (v.13)
- 11) What was Paul fully persuaded of? (v.14)
What was his attitude towards others who differed from him in an opinion on something?
- 12) What is an indication that we're not acting in love? (v.15)
- 13) How can something that you consider to be good be spoken of as evil? (v.16)
- 14) What is the kingdom of God not? (v.17)
What is the kingdom of God?
- 15) What is the outcome of living according to kingdom values? (v.18)
- 16) What must we make an effort to do? (v.19)
- 17) What should our attitude be towards food and drink in relation to other believers? (v.20 – 21)
Does this only relate to food or drink, or is it a principle that can be applied to other areas of life?
- 18) Why should we keep these things that we believe between us and God? (v.22)
What does this sentence mean? Blessed is the one who does not condemn himself by what he approves.
- 19) What do we learn about doubt and faith? (v.23)
